Words from

Mi-Kyung Kim

Birthday: February 29th

Sign: Pisces

Bloodtype: O

Here's Mitz, my cat. She's a very lovely cat. Even now as I'm writing at the computer she sits between me and the keyboard, clawing her face and making it difficult for me to type. "Mitz, come here!" I tell her (since I must continue to work), tapping my thigh. She slides down to my thigh and lies there. I hope she doesn't fall asleep there. T.T

Here's Volume 2!! Since a picture of Mitz is included in this volume, I'll tell you about her (although there isn't much to say.) Last May, when I first saw a picture of Mitz and read about her at a certain Daum cafe, I immediately felt connected to this little kitten. I spent nearly a week, doing nothing but waiting for an e-mail about the status of my application to adopt her. I met her for the first time at a hospital. How lovely she was! She weighed less than 300 grams and she purred everytime I looked at her, as if she'd been starving for the company of human beings. Because she had been sick with severe cold and skin disease as a kitten, she weighs no more than 2.7 kilograms even now (she put on some weight after a surgery last winter). My heart leaps out everytime I look at her. Stay healthy, Mitz, I love you!!!
